EARTHQUAKES IN THE SOUTH.

The Caliente Disaster—Senator Ingalls Burned Out—The Afflicted Prince—General Notes

Valuable Dogs Burned

COLUMBUS, O., January 12.—The fourteenth regiment armory burned this morning. All the uniforms and equipments of the regiment were destroyed; 1,000 pounds of cartridges exploded. The Ohio Poultry, Pigeon, Kennel and Pet Stock Association were holding an annual exhibition in the armory at the time. The value of the exhibit is estimated at $50,000, all of which was consumed, except two or three dogs. Among the dogs burned were Patti M. prize pointer bitch, valued at $1,000. In all over 300 dogs of different breeds were lost, composing the finest display ever made in Ohio. Sir Charles, said to be the finest specimen of St. Bernard in America, valued at $2,500 and the whole of the Alta Kennel of Toledo, O., composed of St. Bernards, were burned. There were between 600 and 800 entries in poultry, carrier pigeons, etc., for many states all burned. The total loss will be about $50,000.

The Caliente Disaster.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 12.—Further particulars of the railroad accident, near Caliente, early yesterday morning, shows that no one was very seriously injured. A passenger named Lukum, had his shoulder dislocated, but the others escaped with cuts and bruises. An emigrant car was the last one on the train, and was occupied by about thirty men, women and children. As the train was rounding the curve, a broken wheel caused the car to leave the track, and as soon as it had broken loose from the rest of the train, it rolled down the embankment 150 feet, making several revolutions, and finally lay on its side. Several men got out, and lifted the passengers out of the windows. The car took fire immediately, and burned to ashes. The passengers arrived in this city last evening.

Earthquake.

CHARLESTON, S. C., January 10.—There was an earthquake shock at Summerville, at 9:55 o'clock this morning. The disturbance was also noticed by some persons here, though it was so slight as not to be felt by the majority of people. There was no damage and no alarm.

COLUMBIA, S. C., January 12.—A sharp earthquake shock, the first in many months, started the citizens of Columbia, at 9:55 this morning. Buildings were severely shaken, and doors, windows, crockery and glassware rattled in a lively manner. People sleeping were rudely awakened, and many rushed into the streets. The direction of the wave seemed to be from north to south. The vibrations continued about ten seconds, and were accompanied by loud detonations.

Senator Ingalls Burned Out.

ARCHISON, KS., January 12.—The residence of Senator Ingalls, with all its contents, was entirely destroyed by fire this morning.

Senator Ingalls' house was one of the largest in the State, and it was in more than the ordinary sense the home of the Senator and his family. His library was one of the largest west of the Mississippi River, and was especially rich in political literature, of pictures and priceless mementoes of the living and dead. The Senator's loss is estimated at $30,000, over and above the insurance, which sum represents the bulk of his accumulations.

The Afflicted Prince.

PARIS, January 12.—The France announces that the German Embassy in Paris has received a telegram, stating that the Crown Prince had a fainting spell and was unconscious for several hours.

SAN REMO, January 12.—Crown Prince Frederick William walked today and afterwards went for a drive. The swelling in his throat is fast disappearing and the best hopes are entertained for his complete recovery.

The Manitoba Legislature.

WINNEPEG, January 12.—The Manitoba Legislature convened this afternoon. The speech from the Throne intimated that the disallowed railroad legislation would be reenacted. Government is likely to be defeated at the first opportunity.

Lost.

GLOUCESTER, January 12.—The fishing schooners William Purson and Peter D Smith, carrying crews of twelve men each, have been given up for lost.

The Eleventh.

HAVERHILL, Mass., January 12.—The unknown lady, the eleventh victim of the Bradford railway disaster, died last night.

'Rah for Riddleberger.

WASHINGTON, January 11.—Senator Riddleberger has announced that he will vote to confirm Lamar.

Pence on Earth.

Awaits that countless army of martyrs, whose ranks are constantly recruited from the victims of nervousness and nervous diseases. The price of the boon is a systematic course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest and most genial of tonic nervines, pursued with reasonable persistence. Easier, pleasanter and safer than to swash the victim's department with pseudo-tonics, alcoholic or the reverse, beef extracts, nerve foods, narcotics, sedatives and poisons in disguise. "Fired Nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep," is the providential recuperant of weak nerves, and this glorious franchise being usually the consequences of sound digestion and increased vigor, the great stomachic which insures both is productive of repose at the required time. Not unrefreshed awakens the individual who uses it, but vigorous, clear headed and tranquil. Use the Bitters also in fever and ague, rheumatism, kidney troubles, constipation and biliousness.

Russia is Firm.

VIENNA, January 12.—General Kaulbars, formerly Russian agent at Sofia, writes to a friend in this city as follows: Since the time we passed together in Sofia, many things have changed, but one thing has not changed, and that is Russia's fixed resolution not to give away, under any pretext, on the question concerning which I told the Bulgarians in 1886, the world might end before Russians would make concessions.

For Grand Larceny.

NEW YORK, January 12.—Howell Payne, of the jewelry firm of Payne, Steck & Co., who failed a few days ago for $130,000, was arrested to-day. Shortly before the failure he obtained diamonds from several firms and when the house failed they were not to be found. There are two indictments against him for grand larceny.

Fraggs Get There.

WASHINGTON, January 12.—The President sent to the Senate, to-day, the nomination of Edward S. Bragg, of Wisconsin, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Mexico.

NOT LEGITIMATE BUSINESS.

Our attention has been called by Mr. J. A. Goodhue, who has, for a number of years represented the Geneva Nursery in this region, to a small handbill which we are informed has been widely distributed throughout the Territory. It is a curiosity in its way, and the object which prompted its issuance is too palpable to be mistaken. It is headed "Utah Nursery Company," an organization which, we understand, constitutes the nucleus in this part of the country for the aforesaid Geneva Nursery. It also presents the names of the stockholders of the association as follows: Phillip A. Dix, Justin A. Goodhue, Charles S. Varian and Frank Pierce. The third name on the list is, for obvious reasons, rendered conspicuous by underscoring with a heavy black line.

The remainder of the handbill is devoted to an explanation to the effect that "O. S. Varian" (with a heavy line under the name), "associated with Mr. J. A. Goodhue, who has been representing the Geneva Nursery Company," did on a certain date make a statement derogatory to the "Mormon" Church. Mr. Varian's expression, which it is unnecessary to reproduce, is given verbatim.

It is hardly needful to state that the handbill is anonymous, because it will be patent to any person who will give it a moment's consideration that it is not such a publication as an ordinary individual would have any appreciable eagerness to affix his name to. Being of that character it can only be properly viewed with contempt.

We cannot sustain any process that is not direct and straightforward, and there can be no justification for an attempt to build up a business on the ruins of another.

In expressing this view we believe we give utterance to the sentiment of the Latter-day Saints at large. It cannot be admitted to the legitimate province of private individuals to, anonymously or otherwise, drag into business matters the public utterances of other persons for the ulterior purpose of increasing their pecuniary profits. Such a process is imbedded in selfishness, with no reference to the public good.

So emphatic is the News on this point that if application had been made to have any publication printed here of the character of the one in question, it would have been respectfully declined, on the ground that this office could not give to it, even in a business way, the color of its approval.

An appeal to the prejudice of the community to further private ends, is highly improper, and can have no ultimate beneficial effect upon the interests of those who resort to it. Mr. Varian's views are his own property and there is a legitimate method of dealing with his public utterances. That is not the method employed in this instance, and we have given this prominence to it because the public manner in which it has been treated, by the distribution of handbills, has made it public property, and we do not wish an idea to gain currency that such doings have sanction or countenance of the community of Latter-day Saints.—News.

Notice.

Whereas, certain parties are and have been trying to injure the business of the Utah Nursery Company by certain false claims, I publish the enclosed.

SALT LAKE, December 24, 1887.

J. A. Goodhue, Esq.:

Dear Sir—Referring to the attack made by A. Milton Musser upon you and your business I have only to say, that I have not a share of the stock of the Utah Nursery Company, nor any interest therein. I did subscribe for one hundred of the 50,000 shares in order to incorporate the company, but with no purpose of investment and the stock was never issued to me.

Very truly yours,

C. S. VARIAN.

The Utah Nursery Company was organized to do a legitimate business, and hope by honest and fair means to hold the trade they now have and increase it.

J. A. Goodhue Manager.
